Message from the President...

We are into our busy Fall schedule. Cammy and her helpers have scheduled many fun events for November. Check out the activity calendar in the newsletter. One of our biggest and most successful events each year is the Christmas Fair, which will be held this year on November 5th. There is always a wonderful variety of arts and crafts for sale, along with the delicious IHC bake products and lunch menu. One of the things that make this event so special is the large number of members who work as a unified group to make this event a success. Thank you to Kim Toppi for organizing it again this year. Do not miss this event.

Paul Andriulli and Jim Cavallaro are working hard to make Saturday nights in the lounge a success. They are getting some very good talent to perform for us. Barbie and I have attended the last couple of Saturdays and had a very good time. You ought to try it. I appreciate the efforts of Paul and Jim.

I am pleased to report that Dianne Procida has assumed the duties of the Chairperson of the Charities Committee from Nancy Thurber. The Board and I want to thank Nancy for the excellent job she did .

I hope to see you at the Center soon.

Marty Joyce, President

Since 2007, the Italian Heritage Center supported Operation Holiday Cheer at it's annual Christmas party. OHC provides a holiday gift to the children of Maine's military families in a show of appreciation for the bravery and sacrifice of these children that share their parent to defend our country. OHC resulted in the distribution of over 8,000 gifts to over 140 cities and towns throughout the State of Maine. Again this year, we are proud to help support this program and are asking our members to donate NEW toys or make a financial donation to help make this program a success. Please bring NEW UNWRAPPED TOYS to the Adult Christmas Party that is being held on December 20th. Italian Heritage Center Concert Band Notes

Mentoring Fifth Grade Musicians

Twelve members of the Band spent an evening in October guiding fifth grade students at the Saco CK Burns Elementary School as they received their band instruments for the first time. The Band members showed them how to assemble and play the instruments while demonstrating that music making is an activity that can last a lifetime. Continuing assistance will be given to the students during their first weeks of playing. In the Spring we will rehearse and perform together - watch our calendar for details!

Concert News

The Band has begun rehearsals for the Holiday Concert season. They will perform for IHC Members at the Annual Adult Christmas Party on Sunday December 18.

The Band is Growing

We have welcomed eight new members since September in addition to new musicians who joined us over the Summer. The growing quality and reputation of the Band in addition to our skilled and dedicated Music Director Nina Oatley are always cited as reasons for joining the IHCCB.

Band CD

The IHCCBand CD is available for purchase - $12 each. The music is a Sampler of the many music genres that the band performs. Members can purchase the CD from Domenica Cipollone at the monthly member or by contacting her via e-mail domenica@maine.rr.com. The recording for this CD was funded in part by a Maine Arts Commission grant to help the band publicize itself.
