Congratulations on our Annual 7 Fish Dinner. This was a record year in attendance with 160 people and amazing food. I want to thank Jim DiBiase and the Cultural Committee with special thanks to Marianne Reali for heading up this event. Also thank you to all the volunteer wait staff. Each year this event gets bigger and better. Many thanks again for everyone’s hard work.

I want to welcome Dan Estey as our new General Manager. He is a highly motivated individual with many talents. Please say “Hi” to him when you get a chance. He is looking forward to meeting all of you.

Many thanks to Paul Andriulli, Frank Reali, Adele Harnois, and especially Nikki Cox who has been at the IHC many hours helping during this transition. We are moving in the right direction.

We had an open seat on the Board of Directors. Barbara Pileggi has resigned for personal reasons but still continues volunteering in every capacity that she can. The last event, the 7 Fish dinner, she helped every day and night. Besides being a former Board of Director, she is on the Cultural Committee and Charity Committee and nominating committee too. Thank you Barbara.

Congratulations to Tom Noonan! He was voted in as a new Trustee on the Board. Welcome Tom! Tom is a very active member; being on the Cultural and Charity Committees and has served on the Nominating committee.

I would like to welcome our newest members to the Italian Heritage Center. They are Richard Scala, David and Kelly Day, Peter and Nicole Hoglund. Please enjoy everything the IHC has to offer.

Last but not least, Tony and Greg Napolitano, owners of “Maria’s Restaurant” have been cooking for all the events since January 3rd! Thank you from the bottom of our hearts. They will continue to be cooking for us for now.

Meet Our New General Manager

I am excited to be writing a short note to introduce myself to all. I welcome all of you to stop in and say hello. I am writing this on day three and so far, I am amazed at the hospitality I have received. I look forward to building on the success of the IHC. I have a varied background that I feel will bring a lot to the IHC. With my extensive experience in Catering, managing and Human Resources, I look forward to bringing many new ideas here and implementing new things to help with the growth.

I have a 20-year-old son Noah who is currently attending St. Joseph’s college majoring in history, secondary education. In my spare time I love exploring the Portland Trail system, discovering new favorite spots each time I am out.

I look forward to meeting as many of you as possible in the coming weeks and do not hesitate to reach out.

Best regards,
Dan Estey

Italian Idiom for February:

Brutto Comme la Fame: As Ugly as Hunger

In English we might say something is as ugly as sin, but in Italian one of the ugliest things in their history is hunger itself.

FEBRUARY ITALIAN MOVIE NIGHT

“Beata Ignoranza”

Saturday, Feb 10, 7:00 pm in the Cantina

Ernesto and Filippo are two high school teachers, completely different; Filippo is a happy progressive tied to the Internet. Handsome and youthful, he is a serial seducer on social networks. Ernesto, conversely, is a strict conservative without a home computer. He is one of the few remaining persons to own a first-generation cell phone and has teaching theories very traditional.

Inevitably they fall out and are incommunicado until they are assigned to the same school. Their different viewpoints bring them into direct conflict and constrain them in turn to radically change their attitudes.

Movie is in Italian with English subtitles. Some brief nudity and adult language.

Donations accepted to defray the cost of DVDs.

Join us for complimentary snacks and a current Italian film.

MARCH ITALIAN MOVIE NIGHT

Saturday, March 10th, 7:00 pm in the Cantina

“Malena”

Amidst the war climate in 1941, a teenage boy, living in a sleepy, narrow minded Sicilian town where nothing ever happens, discovers himself and his life changes forever. He becomes love-stricken by the beautiful, sensual war widow Malèna; the obsession of every man and the envy of every woman. Renato comes to learn all of life’s lessons and finds himself in places he would never have imagined.

Film is rated R for sexuality/nudity, language and some violence.

Donations accepted to defray cost of DVDs.

Join us for complimentary snacks and another thought-provoking film.

IHC Chorus Spring Concert

Mark the date, Sunday, June 3 for the Annual IHC Chorus Spring Concert. Rehearsals will start Wednesday, February 21 at 5:30 pm in the IHC Library. We encourage anyone interested in joining the Chorus to show up for rehearsal on February 21. It’s a lot of fun and don’t be shy.

Some Italian Fun Facts:

1. We all know that Galileo Galilei was arrested nearly 400 years ago by the Roman Catholic Church for having proved the earth moves around the sun and not the other way around. The Church issued a formal apology in 1992.

2. Old houses of the Alberobello region in Bari, Italy have “trulli” or conical roofs with grey stones and unique shaped chimney stacks at the top of the pinnacle to identify houses at a time when house numbers were not common.

Trullis

3. Venice is prone to acqua alta (or high water) in winters, due to high tides and sirocco in the lagoon. In 1974 a system of walkways were built along the city’s main pedestrian areas about 120 cm above sea level.

4. Florence was Europe’s first city to have paved streets in 1339. In other places in the failing Roman Empire, projects to pave roads were abandoned for fear it would help enemies attack faster.

5. The Ponte Vecchio Bridge over the River Arno in Florence was the only bridge left standing after the bombings of WWII. It is rumored that Hitler spared the bridge because he thought it was too beautiful to destroy!
Welcome to a fabulous February!!

The Charity committee is now hard at work planning and promoting this year’s signature fundraising event.
