To:

  From The President's Desk

First Thursday Happy Hour on April 2, 2015 was very well attended. Thank you to any member who brought friends and co-workers. It's great to see new faces and potential new Italian Heritage Center members.

The Howie Carr Event on Sunday, April 12, 2015 was a HUGE success. As usual, Kim McDonough and her staff did a fantastic job. There were approximately 200 people in attendance including some folks from out of the state who complimented on the wonderful atmosphere and the delicious food! Howie gave a great presentation and each person got an autographed book from him. Great Job !!!

Friday, April 17, 2015 was "Neil Diamond" Theme night. It was very well attended. Thank you Kim Toppi and her volunteers (Bob, Rocco, Donna and Gloria) for another great evening.

Jim DiBiase, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the slate for the two Board vacancies. They are: Michael Hutchins and Barbara Pileggi. Rocco Toppi was nominated from the floor.

PLEASE COME DOWN AND VOTE FOR YOUR CANDIDATES ON THURSDAY, MAY 21, 2015 FROM 2:30-6:30 PM. YOU MUST PRESENT YOUR KEY CARD TO VOTE. ALL MEMBERS ARE ELIGIBLE TO VOTE.

As always, I would like to thank all the members for their continued support.

Frank Reali, President

MANAGERS UPDATE: April was a fantastic month at the IHC. We hosted many social events including "Howie Carr's Night of Crime". The evening included a buffet and desserts along with a copy of one of Howie's books, Ratman or Rifleman. Howie gave a power point presentation followed by a question and answer period. Howie plans to return later in the year to do a presentation about his next book due out soon about the Kennedy family. If you missed this one and you like Howie or tales of Boston, make plans to attend.

May and June will fly by as the center is very busy. We have many upcoming events and the Summer and Fall season is booked with Weddings. This is the fun part of what we do. We love to make things elegant and my staff is the best! A huge thank you to them for all they do.
Kimberly A. McDonough

So come on down to La Cantina for some great food and drink on Thursday, May 7 from 4-7 pm. We will have a one-drink special for the night plus a wonderful assortment of complimentary appetizers. We've had rave reviews on the food and the fun, so please join us.

SAVE THE DATE: next Happy Hour is June 4

Nominating Committee

In addition to the two Nominating Committee selections, there was a nomination from the floor at the April 2015 General Meeting. As a result, we have three candidates running for two Board Director positions.

Rocco Toppi

Mike Hutchins

Barbara Pileggi

Barbara writes: I have been a member of the IHC for 4 years. During this time I have served as a member of the Scholarship, Cultural, Charity, New Membership and Nomination Committees. I also play Bocce and sing in the choir. Since I have served on all of these committees, I think my next step is to run for the Board of Directors.

My parents and grandparents were born in Calabria. They arrived in America in 1900 and settled in Ocean City, New Jersey. They lived on Simpson Avenue, also known as Macaroni Street, where I was born and raised. Growing up, my dear mother instilled in me the love of people, laughter and fun. She also gave me a strong sense of morals and convictions. I am very proud of my heritage.

I absolutely love the Italian Heritage Center. It has become family to me and I get a lot of personal satisfaction being a member. I will continue to serve on various committees and promote the events.

I hope you will consider me for the position and do sincerely appreciate your vote.

Respectfully yours,

“Barb” Pileggi
