The following was submitted by Marianne Reali under "Voice of the People" in the Portland newspaper:

I attended the September 18 City Council Meeting that was attempting to eradicate Columbus Day as a city holiday, a proposal sponsored by Councilor, Pious Ali.

It is true that Native Americans endured many atrocities in the past and these actions should be rectified, but not at the expense of celebrating our Italian ancestors, who also faced discrimination for centuries.

We Italian-Americans are very proud of our heritage. Portland has a large population of Italians; some of them our forefathers, who labored on the waterfront and laid the cobblestones along the streets of the Old Port. They did whatever they could to find work to put food on the table for their families. They worked for everything and had nothing handed to them.

Once our grandparents settled in Portland, Italian became their second language. They learned English and demanded that their children speak English. They didn't try to change American culture; they wanted to be part of it.

As successive generations of Italians, we benefit from our immigrant ancestors' long and arduous labor. Today, we are the doctors, lawyers, teachers, business people, entertainers, artists, politicians, police officers, firefighters, clergy and proud laborers. We have contributed much to the world and our beloved city.

This attempt to dishonor Columbus is a slap to the face of all Italians, who have worked tirelessly to improve the Portland community.

There is a growing trend to be politically correct, but I feel that this attempt to change and erase history is repugnant. These atrocities happened centuries ago. We can learn from past mistakes and make sure these actions will never occur again. Columbus Day is not a celebration of one man but a celebration of Italian-Americans and their contributions to the world. I would fully sponsor an Indigenous People's Day, but let's establish it on one of the other 365 days in the year.

Saturday, November 11, 7:00 pm in the Cantina

A true story of Peppino Impastato who rebels against his Mafioso father and against the culture of Omerta. The story takes place in the small town of Cinisi in the province of Palermo, Sicily, the home town of the Impastato family. One hundred steps were the number of steps it took to get from the Impastato house to the house of the Mafia boss Tano Badalamenti. One hundred steps that Peppino doesn't want to take. And that he never will.

Movie is in Italian with English subtitles.
Donations accepted to defray cost of DVDs.
Join us for complimentary snacks and an award winning Italian film

A financial wizard disappears with money entrusted to him by the people of Montelusa. When his car is found with the corpse of an employee inside, authorities are ready to call it a Mafia killing. The remaining employees offer to help with the investigation, but can any of them be trusted?

Italian Idiom for November:

Colto con le mani nel sacco* (Caught with his hands in the bag)

This one is comparable to the English idiom, "caught red-handed" or "caught with one's hands in the cookie jar." These idioms refer to someone who got caught stealing cash or something else, often helping themselves to the detriment of others.

Charity Committee news from Tess Hakkila

Happy Fall Everyone - Just a reminder that the Charity Committee will be collecting non-perishable food donations for Thanksgiving now through Nov 16th.

There is a collection box in the Cantina and we will also be collecting at the November General Meeting. This food will be going to 3-4 families in our community who are struggling or are in crisis. During the holiday season with children out of school, it means sometimes these children are not getting 3 meals a day. We plan to help these families at Christmas as well. We are decorating the Giving Tree in the Cantina on Saturday, November 25 with our traditional wish ornaments for these families. We want to thank you in advance for your generous support and wish you a happy and healthy fall season.

Felice Thanksgiving
