A Message from President Carmela Reali

Thank you to Nicola Cox for organizing the Children's Christmas Party. The kids had a wonderful time. A BIG thank you to Rocco SANTA Toppi and Mrs. Clause, Denise Davis and all the others who helped make the party a success.

Many thanks to our IHC Chorus for entertaining us at the annual Christmas Concert. It was the largest crowd yet to come watch the Chorus sing! Thank you Peter Donatelli for putting the program together.

The Italian Heritage Center will be closed the first week in January. The Center will reopen on Tuesday, January 8, 2019.

Please make note that the Board and General Meeting will be on Wednesday, January 16, 2019 instead of the regular day. This is to accommodate a large function on Thursday, January 17th.

We have two vacancies on the Board. There will be a special election at the General Meeting in January. The positions up for election in January are for Vice President and Recording Secretary. Nominations will come from the floor and will be voted on the same night. It will be done by closed ballot. If you wish to be considered but are unable to attend the General Meeting in January, please notify the President in writing as soon as possible. Please bring your key card to get your ballot. More information is on the front cover.

The Revisiting Christmas Eve Dinner will be held on Friday, January 18, 2019. Please call Jim DiBiase at 767-2292 or Marianne Reali at 415-6341 for reservations. This is selling out quickly.

I would like to welcome our newest members to the Italian Heritage Center. They are: Rosemarie Cirello, Gina Regiacorte-Mosher, Jason Cimino and Janice McNally. Please enjoy what the IHC has to offer.

We are always looking for new members. Remember you do not have to be Italian to be a member.

As always, I would like to thank all of our membri ^(members) for their continued support.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Italian Movie Night, January 12th @ 7:00pm / Cantina

“Tutto Quello Che Vuoi” (Friends by Chance)

A cocky, hot-headed 22-year-old troublemaker and an elderly poet living with Alzheimer’s form an unlikely kinship in this delightful coming-of-age story. In the streets of Rome, hot-headed young lay-about Alessandro piddles away time with his friends gambling, getting into fights, and spending nights in jail. Fed up with his misbehavior, Alessandro’s father demands he take a job caregiving for bard and WWII veteran Giorgio. At first, accompanying the ill and disoriented Giorgio on his afternoon walks is a chore for petulant Alessandro, but as Giorgio begins to recall his illustrious past, clues of a buried treasure are revealed, and the two embark on an adventure that will alter the course of their lives. Nominated for three prestigious Nastro d’Argento awards, including Best Cinematography and Best Film, it won for Best Screenplay.

Traditional Italian American Christmas Eve Dinner, January 18th

The date for our annual Italian American Christmas Eve Dinner has been set. Seating will again be limited to 150 people, so save the date and get your reservations in early.

Members $35, Non Members $40

Did you know that a traditional Italian American Christmas Eve celebration typically consists of seven different seafood dishes? Hence: The Feast of the Seven Fish!!

This celebration commemorates the wait, THE VIGILIA di NATALE, for the midnight birth of the baby JESUS.

Some Italian American families have been known to celebrate with nine, eleven or even thirteen different seafood dishes. The most famous dish Southern Italians are known for is baccala (salted cod fish). The custom of celebrating with a simple fish such as baccala is attributed to the habitually impoverished regions of Southern Italy. A typical Christmas Eve meal may include anchovies, whiting, lobster, sardines, smelts, eel, squid, octopus, shrimp, mussels and clams. The menu may also include pastas, vegetables, bake goods and homemade wine.

The menu for our observance this year consists of:

ANTIPASTI: Seafood Salad comprised of baccala, calamari, shrimp, and either mussels or clams complemented with oven roasted red peppers.

PRIMI: Frutti di Mare comprised of linguini in a garlic shrimp and scallop red sauce with a hot pepper oil served on the side for those who like a more spicy flavor.

SECONDI: A haddock dish TBD and broccoli rape

DOLCI: An assortment of Italian pastries Bread served at each table.

Two bottles of wine served at each table. Red & White

Again, this year we must limit the number of people for this event to 150. Tickets will not be sold at the door. So, please call early to reserve your tickets.

Please call Marianne Reali at 415-6341 or Jim DiBiase at 767-2292 for reservations.

Gin had another successful fall season.

The nine winners for the spring season were:

Betsy Hamm Tim Hamm Brenda Berry Sam Mack Jean Shaw
Mary Toppi Helene Brogan Kim Toppi Benita Anderson

After a play off, the following were successful:

1st Place—Benita Anderson

2nd Place—Jean Shaw

3rd Place—Sam Mack

Congratulations to all the top players.

I want to thank everyone in the gin family for everything this fall. It was a pleasure to run gin, and I am planning on running it again in the Spring. Gin will start up again sometime in late March early April. Check the February newsletters for dates and times.

If you would like to learn how to play, I will be available to teach you or practice playing on Wednesday evenings. Give me a call if you want to learn or refresh. We can make a time to get together in the Cantina. We would love to have more members join us on Wednesday nights this Spring.

Buon Natale & Felice Anno Nuovo

The figure of La Befana ^(The Witch) has been an Italian Christmas tradition, long before Babbo Natale ^(Santa Claus) made his way into the bel paese ^(beautiful country) culture. Most sources say that the myth of La Befana goes back to the 13th century.

The name La Befana derives from the word "epifania"^(epiphany). Epiphany is the religious observation following Christmas of the arrival of the Three Magi to present their precious gifts to the Baby Jesus. The legend is that the Magi stopped along their long journey, knocking on the door of an old woman to ask directions to Bethlehem and to rest.

She received them and offered them refreshments and, like any good Italian casalinga ^(housewife) inquired of their journey. They explained that they were following a star because a new king was born, a baby that would be the savior, and so they were making this arduous journey to pay homage and offer gifts to the new-born king. They asked her if she would like to accompany them, but she refused, saying she had too much house work to do.

The Magi departed, but while she was sweeping her floor, La Befana reconsidered and decided she wanted to go along and see this baby king. She gathered together some sweets as a gift and ran out after them, but by then the Magi were long gone. She went along the journey, following the star they indicated and leaving sweets at every child's door hoping to find the baby Jesus. She continues her search, broom in hand, handkerchief on her head, filling socks with sweets and toys. (A more modern infusion into the tradition is that she leaves coal for mischievous children, adopted from the Santa Claus theme).

Another recent distortion is to give her a witch's cap, but she was a casalinga (housewife) not a strega (witch). Many renditions of her are of an ugly old woman with a kerchief, hooked knotty nose with a wart, and a patch worked dress. She should be remembered as a poor old woman whose broom is her curse, the reason she missed out on the chance to kneel before the baby Jesus.

More facts about the Eternal City

It's Rome's birthday:

The she-wolf is the symbol of Rome. On April 21st in 753 BC, the legend goes, Rome was first founded. Let's look at some more of the most weird and wonderful facts about what is often called the Eternal City.

10. Rome's most-visited tourist sites are the Colosseum and the Vatican Museums, which each let more than 4 million tourists go through their doors each year.
11. Gladiators' blood was a hot commodity: ancient writings reveal it was used as a 'health drink' in ancient Rome and thought to cure epilepsy and aid fertility.
12. Rome's main university, La Sapienza, is the largest in Europe in terms of enrollment numbers. Founded in 1303, it's also one of Europe's oldest.
13. Remember Romulus and Remus, the city's founders? Some people believe they were raised by a she-wolf, an animal which is still the symbol of the city.
